Tutoring Experience

I've spent the last 16 years working with students across various curriculums, including IB, A-Level, and IGCSE. My experience ranges from teaching middle school students to preparing high school graduates for their university entrance exams. I've also helped numerous students master complex topics like calculus and statistics.

In my role as a tutor, I've developed strategies that cater to individual learning styles, making even the most difficult concepts accessible. I work closely with students to ensure they grasp the fundamentals and build confidence in their mathematical abilities. My teaching has helped students gain admission to top universities.

I've also mentored other tutors, sharing my insights on the best ways to engage students. Working with diverse learners from across the globe has allowed me to refine my approach and consistently deliver excellent results.
